

Loline-Marie C. Djidade, Esq.

Loline-Marie C. Djidade (Loline) is a Judicial Law Clerk for the Honorable T. Arthur Ritchie in the Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County, Nevada.

A Jamaican transplant, Loline served eight years in the United States Air Force as a Combat Weather Forecaster and Operational Meteorologist. After serving honorably in the United States Air Force, Loline sought to use her expertise as a weather forecaster, as well as her degree in Applied Science to advance in the weather profession in Las Vegas. However, she soon found out that opportunities as a civilian meteorologist in the Las Vegas Valley were just as scarce as inclement weather.

Loline made the decision to retrain into the field of hospitality. She graduated Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Science Degree from the prestigious William F. Harrah College of Hospitality at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas in 2007.

While working as a marketing manager with Wyndham Vacation Ownership, Loline's position was eliminated as the company underwent changes. She saw this as a blessing in disguise and used the opportunity as a springboard to propel her into law school; an ambition she had originally put on hold.

While at the William S. Boyd School of Law at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, Loline engaged in various organizational activities including the Black Law Student Association, the Native American Law Student Association and OUTLaws. Loline served as the Secretary of the Black Law Student's Association (BLSA) for the 2014-2015 School year. During this time, she and her writing partner were awarded the Best Respondent Brief in the Frederick Douglass Moot Court Competition.

Coming from a background of service to community, Loline consistently engages in community service opportunities and strives to live by the motto: Facta Non Verba – Deeds not words.

During her time on the E-Board, BLSA was awarded Chapter of The Year for the Western Region Black Law Students Association (WRBLSA), Chapter of the Year for the National Black Law Student's Association (NBLSA), and Organization of the Year for the Boyd School of Law. Loline was also awarded the Diversity Fellowship and worked as a Consumer Law Clerk at the Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada providing help to the underserved communities of Las Vegas.

In 2016 Loline graduated from the William S. Boyd School of Law with a Juris Doctor Degree. Loline is licensed to practice law in the state of Nevada and currently serves as the Co-Historian for the Las Vegas Chapter of the National Bar Association. In her role, she strives to not just visit the history of the past but to make history worthy of repeating.

Loline is a lifelong learner who loves to travel, eat out with friends, and spend time in good company. Loline makes a mean dish of Jamaican oxtails!
