

Maliq Kendricks, Esq.

Maliq Kendricks is a fourth-generation Las Vegas native, who takes pride in being a Nevadan. For his undergraduate studies, Maliq attended the illustrious Tuskegee University and graduated therefrom in 2016. Thereafter, Maliq attended the William S. Boyd School of Law, where he obtained his Juris Doctor in 2019. At graduation, Maliq was named to the National Order of Scribes by the American Society of Legal Writers for his outstanding writing abilities. During law school, not only was Maliq a full-time law student who served on the Nevada Law Journal, worked as a judicial extern to the Honorable Elizabeth Gonzalez, and interned at the Boyd Gaming Corporation, yet Maliq also simultaneously obtained a Master of Education in Curriculum and Instruction, was a full-time Secondary English teacher at his middle school Alma Mater, and was a Teach For America corps member. Currently, Maliq works as a Judicial Law Clerk for the Honorable Cristina Silva and is an active community servant within the Las Vegas Valley. Maliq is licensed to practice in Nevada, having been admitted to the State Bar in 2019.
