

Tyre Gray, Esq.

Tyre L. Gray, Esq., President of the Nevada Mining Association, is as a charismatic thought-leader. Known for his big laugh and positive outlook, Tyre cut his teeth as an educator at an at-risk learning academy before transitioning into the private sector where he spent the past two decades acquiring a wide variety of skills holding leadership positions in the consulting, resorts, and legal industry. Immediately before taking the helm of the Association, Tyre was an attorney in private practice focusing on government affairs, where he represented a Fortune 5 company and numerous Fortune 500 companies before local, state, and federal regulatory and legislative bodies across the southwestern states. Tyre's sharp dress is only matched by his sharp wit and great appreciation for music. Tyre lives in Las Vegas, NV, with his wife, Ashanti, son Adonis, and his daughter, Reign. He currently serves as the Chair for the MLK Drum Major for Justice Advocacy Competition.
